Today, i.e., on the 23rd July 2022 the RDC meeting of the Department of Tourism, School of Tourism, Hospitality and Hotel Management was held at 1:00 pm in the chamber of the Director of the School.

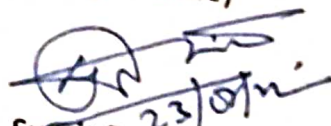

The Candidate, Mr. Rajeev Semwal made a Power Point Presentation, and a detailed discussion took place. On the basis of evaluation of the presentation and the synopsis, the following recommendations were made.

1. Topic chosen by the candidate, "A Study of Satisfaction of Tourists Staying in Rural Homestays of Uttarakhand" was approved.
2. The following suggestions were given:
  - The sequencing of the sub-titles in research methodology is to be rearranged
  - Snowball sampling is to be applied
  - 'SERVQUAL', after due modifications, is to be used as the tool for measurement of satisfaction of the respondents.
  - Categories of homestays should clearly be defined in the delimitations.

After accepting the above-mentioned recommendations, the meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the chair.
