Prof. R.C. Mishra, Director, School of Tourism, Hospitality and Hotel Management welcomed all the members of the committee and briefed them about the department, the course contents and the roles and responsibilities of the Board of Studies. Thereafter detailed discussions took place amongst members and based upon these discussions the following decisions were taken unanimously:

1. According to the first item of the Agenda the guidelines regarding nomenclature of programmes offered by the Department of Hotel Management in accordance with UGC's specifications of degrees, it was recommended that the nomenclature of the programmes of study should be in accordance with the UGC's specifications i.e. Bachelor of Hotel Management (BHM) 4 Years w.e.f. the academic session beginning January 2018.
2. The programme structure and the detailed course-contents of all the proposed courses of study of Bachelor of Hotel Management (4 years) were discussed at length and the same was approved.
3. The programme structure and the detailed course-contents of all the proposed courses of study of Master of Hotel Management were discussed at length and the same was approved.
4. The list of suitable and eligible unit writers, editors and moderators for developing SILM as per the revised syllabus of Bachelor of Hotel Management (4 years) and Master of Hotel Management as well as the list of experts for confidential work of examination was approved.
5. In view of the modular structure of ODL it was decided to award the Diploma in Hotel Management to such learners who got enrolled for Bachelor of Hotel Management (BHM 11/BHM 16) but somehow after completing the first year they withdraw from the degree programme. Such learners may be awarded the Diploma as per the rules and practices of the University.
6. As listed against item no. 8 of the Agenda the issue of initiating the Ph.D. programme in Hotel Management was taken up. The BOS formally approved the proposal but it
