

NWFP 101: BASICS OF NON WOOD FOREST PRODUCTS (Credit 06)

SYLLABUS

Introduction to different types of forest products; Status and classification of NWFPs; Livelihood Implications of NWFPs; Industrial uses; Valuation, value addition and enterprise development; NWFPs: Fodder, Fuel, Wild fruits / edible plants, bamboos, canes, gums, resins and oleoresins, Tans and dyes, fibers and flosses, cutch, Kattha, bee products; NWFP Gardens: Regional and National; maintenance and management of NWFP gardens; Sustainable harvest of NWFPs and policy needs

UNIT SCHEDULE

Unit 1. Introduction to different types of forest products

Unit 2. Status and classification of NWFPs

Unit 3. Livelihood Implications of NWFPs

Unit 4. Industrial uses of NWFP

Unit 5. Valuation, value addition and enterprise development

Unit 6. NWFPs: Fodder, Fuel

Unit 7. NWFPs: Wild fruits / edible plants

Unit 8. NWFPs: Bamboos and canes

Unit 9. NWFPs: Gums, resins and oleoresins

Unit 10. NWFPs: Tans and dyes

Unit 11. NWFPs: Fibers and flosses

Unit 12. NWFPs: Misc. (Cutch, Katha, Bee products)

Unit 13. Regional and National NWFP gardens

Unit 14. Maintenance and management of NWFP gardens

Unit 15. Sustainable harvest of NWFPs and policy needs